

Dr. Joan A. Caylà (Barcelona)

Dr. Caylà is the Head of the Epidemiology Service of the Public Health Agency of Barcelona and he is an Associate Professor at the Autonomous University of Barcelona/Department of Preventive Medicine and Public Health. A part of that, he is the coordinator of the Tuberculosis Investigation Unit of Barcelona (see <http://www.aspb.es/uitb>) since 1996 and he is also the co-director of the “2008 Year of Tuberculosis & Solidarity” of the Spanish Society of Pneumology (SEPAR) and director of the Research Program on Tuberculosis of the SEPAR.

Dr. Caylà works in the TB Program of Barcelona since its creation in 1986. He has large experience in controlling TB and as investigator for epidemiology and clinical trials in the area of tuberculosis. He has more than 80 scientific publications about TB and/or AIDS in peer reviewed journals and he is a reviewer in several peer reviewed journals.